About our Instructors

Harry Sher, CML, CPS. Certified ALOA ACE Instructor. 50+ years experience. Active member of ALOA, SAVTA, IAIL and numerous local associations. Instructor for Federal Officers since 1967, instrumental in building training facility for National Nuclear Security Administration. 2007 ALOA ACE instructor of the Year.

Joy Skowron., Automotive Channel Marketing Specialist at Kaba Ilco; involved in many facets of automotive aftermarket for 33 years and has been conducting automotive training classes for the past 17 years. Instrumental in technology changes during that time, and educating the market through the evolution of products and technology.

Nate Spitz: 2006 Purdue University graduate, joined Ingersoll Rand the same year learning commercial distribution, I- R Integration in electronics and full building security integration including CCTV and Access Control. In 2007 Nate returned to MN to pursue his MBA and take on a role with North Central SSC office.

Mike Gall: Is a veteran of the North Central hardware distribution industry, the CEO of Hardlines, representing Hager, Trine, et al.

Paul Davis, PLT: has been with ASSA ABLOY for 8 years as the factory representative for SARGENT, CORBIN RUSSWIN, McKINNEY, NORTON, RIXSON, and YALE and more. He has been in the lock industry for over 30 years, coming from a family of locksmiths.

David E. Thielen, CML. 28+ years experience. Joined ALOA, 1985. Certified ALOA ACE Instructor. Two time winner, ALOA Continuing Education Award. Lockshop manager, Adams Twelve Five Star School District, Broomfield, Colorado. Member of RMLA and DHI.

David Paulsrud, Sr., CML has served ALOA in many capacities for over 40 years. He cheerfully gives his time to proctor our local PRP exams to advance the professionalism of the industry. He “retired” 10 years ago, but I don’t see him slowing down.
